shield," Patel said.

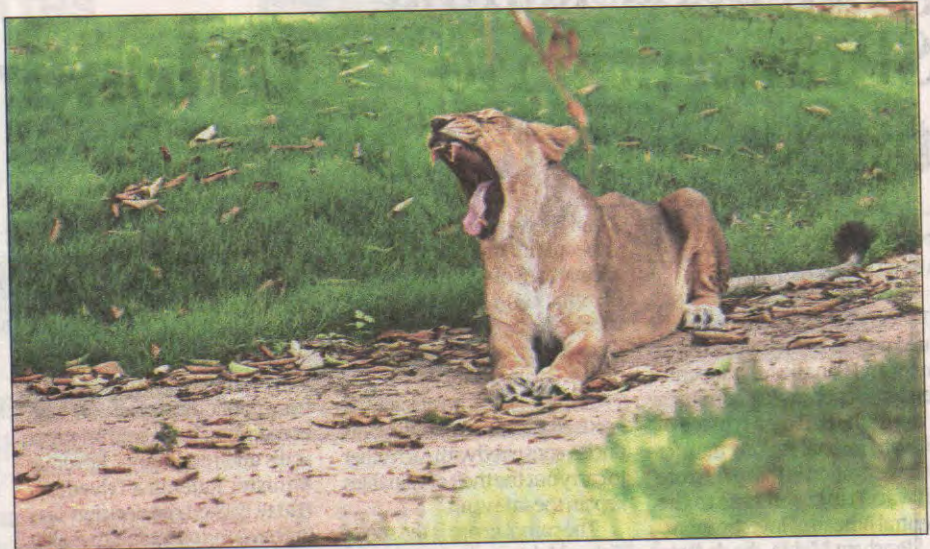

The 'Niramay Gujarat Yojana' envisages screening of those above 30 years age for various non-communicable diseases like high blood pressure, heart attack, paralysis, cancer, renal ailments, anemia, and diabetes, their diagnosis and free treatment.

Meanwhile, Chief Minister Bhupendra Patel launched the scheme at a state function in Palanpur of Banaskantha district.

Explaining the significance of the new scheme, the CM said, "Today we are moving a step ahead to ensure that we don't get any disease or illness and for that this screening of non infectious diseases is being started in Palanpur. Our lifestyle has changed a lot due to which there are many diseases which we don't realize until one of our organs gets damaged or infected. Even during the pandemic, we have seen that people who had diabetes were affected the most..."

The CM also referred to the rising number of Covid-19 cases after Diwali and appealed people to follow the necessary guidelines to ensure that the infection does not spread.

"The Gujarat government is working in all directions and even during the pandemic, it had teamed up with NGOs and religious organisations to make the state come out of pandemic. After Diwali, cases have risen so we have to be fit again and follow the Covid-19 guidelines," CM Patel added.
