THIRUVANANTHAPURAM, NOV 2

WITH A few key projects of the CPI(M)-led LDF government in Kerala under the scanner of the Enforcement Directorate (ED) and other central agencies, Chief Minister Pinarayi Vijayan on Monday said that central investigating agencies probing the gold smuggling case are "exceeding their jurisdiction to malign and destabilise an elected state government."

Vijayan told the media that these agencies have exceeded their authority and their actions are a clear violation of the federal norms of the country.

He said: "I don't want to blame any agency or any official. But I want to make clear certain things when professional standards generally accepted by investigative agencies are being subverted and investigations are being diverted to suit certain vested interests."

After Vijayan's former principal secretary M Sivasankar was arnancial transactions in a housing project of the government, implemented with the funding of Emirates Red Crescent, is also being probed by central agencies.

Vijayan said a situation has arisen where central probe agencies are responsible for analysing policies and programmes of the state government, which is in no way acceptable to those who believe in democratic values and respect the Constitution. Some of these agencies are encroaching into executive powers of the state government and the scrutiny of constitutional institutions, he said.

"It is a violation of their own jurisdiction and thereby an encroachment on the Constitution. This is undemocratic and unconstitutional and it cannot be allowed. The state government will make necessary interventions within the existing legal framework," he said. Vijayan said when the state urged the Centre for a concerted probe into the gold smuggling case, it had a legitimate expectation that the probe would go through proper legal channels.
